

The Big Questions

Week 1 Should Billionaires Exist?

Prepare to engage in thought-provoking discussions as we delve into the ethical and economic implications of billionaire existence.

We'll critically examine the role of extreme wealth in society, scrutinise the impacts of wealth concentration, and explore alternative perspectives on redistributive justice.

Week 2 Are Designer Babies the Future of the Human Race?

In Week 2, we'll dive into the ethical complexities of genetic engineering and the concept of "designer babies."

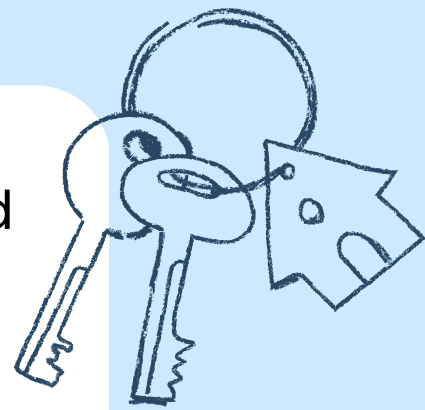

We'll explore the opportunities and risks associated with biotechnology, and consider the moral implications of altering human genetics. Get ready to envision the future of humanity!

Week 3 Can we end homelessness?

In Week 3 we'll delve into the root causes of homelessness, and critically analyse existing solutions to this complex problem.

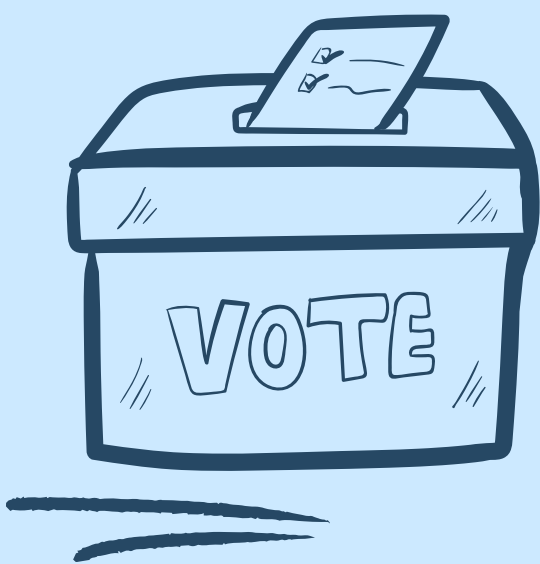

Through engaging discussions on the role of government and the economics of the housing sector, we'll explore the challenges and possibilities of creating a world without homelessness.

Week 4 Is democracy dying?

In Week 4, we'll embark on a deep dive into the concept of democracy and its place in modern governance. Explore the fundamental principles of democracy, examine its historical evolution, and scrutinise its strengths and weaknesses.

Through lively debates and critical analysis, we'll consider the compatibility of democracy with diverse societies, and contemplate its resilience in the face of contemporary challenges.

Week 5 Are we heading towards a surveillance state?

In our final week, we'll confront the rise of surveillance technology and its implications for privacy and freedom.

We'll explore the expansion of surveillance capabilities, discuss the balance between security and civil liberties, and consider the societal impacts of pervasive surveillance.
